📂 PROJECTS

AI summarizer 🔗
An AI summarizer application using OpenAI's GPT model will be integrated, allowing users to generate concise and coherent summaries of articles and text. This project involves setting up a ReactJS application with Vite for efficient development. It emphasizes creating an attractive UI using Tailwind CSS with a touch of glass morphism. Advanced API requests using RTK Query are implemented conditionally.

Myntra clone 🔗
This is a replica of the Myntra website that lets you add items to a shopping bag. It features a header with links and a search bar, a main section for bag items, and a footer with various links. External styles and fonts are used for a polished appearance, and JavaScript enhances dynamic features. The design mimics Myntra's layout.

Book Store 🔗
"Book Store Frontend is a modern web application built with React JS and powered by Vite for fast development. Tailwind CSS ensures a sleek and responsive design. Users can explore a curated list of books, search for specific titles, and seamlessly navigate through detailed book pages with features like sorting, filtering, and a user-friendly shopping cart for online purchases."

Nike Clone 🔗
"Nike Clone is a Frontend dynamic React-powered project, developed with Vite for speed and Tailwind CSS for styling, replicating the sleek design of the Nike website for a modern shopping experience."
